

The Tissington Trail Half Marathon

Tissington, Derbyshire

Sunday 7th October 2012 at 10.00am

Held under UKA Rules. UKA Permit applied for.

The Tissington Trail, the site of a former railway line from Ashbourne to Buxton, runs along a 13 mile route from Ashbourne in Derbyshire. Surrounded by beautiful countryside the traffic-free trail is ideal for a cracking half marathon. Running one way is slightly downhill – the other is slightly uphill. Which will it be? The ‘up or down’ decision will be taken in the spring of 2012 – but whichever it is, this will be a rare opportunity to run a half marathon in Derbyshire without hills! The race will be a point to point race with runners having the opportunity to either make their own arrangements for transport to the start/from the finish; alternatively a bus service will take participants to the start of the race and you then are able to finish where you park.

This is a rare opportunity to run on the Tissington Trail and numbers are strictly limited to 200 runners.

The race is a fundraiser for The Children’s Trust which provides care, education, therapy and rehabilitation to children with multiple disabilities, complex health needs and acquired brain injury.
